CATTLE RUN LARGE--PRICES DOWN.

Hogs Keep Drifting to Lower Prices ---Heavy Weights a Drug.

SHEEP STEADY, LAMBS A SHADE OFF

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH,) THUESDAY, January 17, 1889. With the returns all in for the week, it appears that through receipts of cattle this week are 1,630 bead more than last week, and local 590 more. There has been an increase of local receipts every week since the middle of December. For the weeks before and after holidays the receipts were 1,200 to 1,500 head. By reference to October and No-vember reports, it is discovered that local cattle receipts ranged from $ 000 to almost 4 000 head. The largest receipts were for the week ending October 15, when the total was 3,920 head. The smallest was for the week ending December 27, with 1,260 as the total of local receipts. The heavy run of cattle this week broke markets from 10 to 25c, and a number of leads are left unsold at last accounts. The biggest drop in prices this week was on bulls. Last week supply in this line was not up to demand. This week about four times as Last week supply in any up to demand. This week about four times as many as were wanted were shoved on to market. While the wants of trade called for two loads, eight were on sale, and some were still on sale at 50c to 75c per 100 below last week's prices.

Of the cattle supplies on hand this week the general average was good. Out of 140 loads there were about 35 loads of low grade stock from Chicago, and about as many heavy cattle, weighing from 1,400 to 1,600 nounds. About weighing from 1,400 to 1,600 nounds.

Of the cattle supplies on hand this week the general average was good. Out of 140 loads there were about 25 loads of low grade stock from Chicago, and about as many heavy cattle, weighing from 1,400 to 1,600 nounds. About 1,200 head were what is termed in the trade medium to good butcher stock from 1,200 to 1,200 nounds in weight. This grade suffered least from the drop, and some dealers claim that good straight steers weighing 1,000 to 1,100 nounds brought fully hast week's prices. The market as a whole has not been satisfactory. Veal calves are still in good demand. Hogs.

The stiff prices maintained for hogs since the early part of last week induced purchasers to send large orders to Chicago, where prices were relatively lower. The Chicago orders began to show up yesterday and markets at once fell off 15c. To-day another drop of 10c has come. Advices from Chicago indicate a drop there of 5 to 10c to-day, with receipts of 18,000 head. The range of prices at Chicago to-day is St 1995 15.

The promise of the Signal Service that a cool wave is on the way braces up the spirits of dealers in hogs. Mild weather and an abundance of corn are responsible for the late downward drift in prices. Heavy hogs are particularly dull. Light weights from 140 to 160 pounds are most sought after and secure the best prices.

Sheep and Lambs.

The run of sheep this week and last has been large, compared with two weeks ago. Notwithstanding liberal receipts, markets held up well, and at the beginning of the week prices were a shade better than at the close of the week before. To-day prices are again a shade of, with a few decks left unsold. Lambs are not as active as for some weeks past, and are 10c to 15c lower than a week ago. Following is the report of the week's transactions at the East Liberty wards:

Wheat Boomed by a Change in the Weather -Corn and Oats Move Up a Point -Pork and Lard Steady.

CHICAGO-Just a fair business was trans-acted in wheat to-day, and the feeling was stronger with prices sustained above the closing quotations of yesterday. The opening was about the same as yesterday's closing figures, but steadily advanced, with only slight fluctuations, 1½c above inside opening figures, receded ½c, again advanced ½c, and closed firm and about ic higher. There was good local buying, part of which may have been influenced by the sudden change in the weather. The ground in the winter wheat districts is reported bare of snow, and fears of freezing weather may have induced some covering and also buying on "iong" account.

Corn was dull and neglected early in the session, trading being of a light local character, with fluctuations very narrow. The feeling was quotably firm, and the market was much the same as on yesterday. There was little if any outside news of consequence received, but at the close prices were ½6% higher than yesterday. was stronger with prices sustained above the

The Insurance Interest of Pittsburg on a Firm Foundation.

SAFEGUARDS AGAINST FIRE. The Petroleum Market Goes All to Pieces Under Oil City Hammering.

STOCKS STILL RIDING A HIGH HORSE

Fire insurance is a leading business in Pittsburg. There are 21 companies in the field, all thoroughly equipped and managed by able and enterprising men. A few of them are competitors with similar organiconstitute a large majority, confine themselves to what they call local work. This means that they restrict their operations to Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia, with an occasional foray over the Maryland border.

There is no friction between the companie in the matter of rates. The schedule adopted last year continues in force, and is working satisfactorily. Pittsburg and Allegbeny are thoroughly inspected, and improvements in the way of safeguards against fire suggested by the inspectors must be made before policies can be obtained at schedule rates. Neglect in this direction is punished by an extra charge commensurate with the greater degree of risk. In some cases insurance at any price is refused. This makes property holders careful and tends to reduce the number of fires, The insurance business, so far as it affects Pittsburg, is in better shape this year than ever before. All of the 2l companies have ample surplus to meet any ordinary exigency. Nothing less than a general conflagration, such as swent over Pittshure in 1845, would compel any of them to throw up the sponge. The fact that there is very little insurance stock for sale shows that the business is upon a solid and pay-

Fire insurance is of modern origin. It was unknown to the Greeks and Romans. The first official notice of it in England occurs in a statute passed by Parliament in 1601, a year before the death of Queen Elizabeth.

A BLIZZARD IN OIL.

Prices Do Some Grand and Lofty Tumbling -Bears in Clover.

Oil opened strong yesterday at 85%c, %c better than on the previous day, and for a short time the feeling was decidedly bullish, with a generous volume of business. This condition was short lived, however, for Oil City became a seiler, and a reaction followed which sent prices below zero. The bulls made gallant efforts to some of them changing front and joining the bears. There was no recovery after the first bears. There was no recovery after the first break, the tendency being steadily downward until the close. The range of prices was the lowest for many months. The opening was $59\timescc. lowest, $4\timescc. Close, $4\timescc. New York was a buyer under $50.

The influence at work is incomprehensible. Bullish news and a decline in prices cannot be satisfactorily accounted for. They are not convertible terms. The cause for the depression must be looked for elsewhere. More importance is attached to the producers' bundle than it is entitled to. If it were all dumped liseffect would be over in two or three days. That somebody is loading up is generally admitted. Nothing can be made by selling in the present condition of the market. But who the mysterious individual or corporation is, is a puzzle. As soon as he or it ceases to gobble a change will come—there are signs of it in the air—and it will likely be in an upward direction, for it is will likely be in an upward direction, for it is hard to believe that there is a lower depth to

LONDON DISAPPOINTED

Over the Failure of Wall Street to Elevate Stocks-Conlers and Trusts Still Prime Favorites-Prices

Slightly Better. NEW YORK, January 17 .- The stock market was less active to-day, with a feverish tone, although rather heavy in the forenoon and stronger later in the day. London was not so much of a factor in this market to-day, the disposition on the other side being to await action by the local operators, as there is considerable disappointment over the failure of the market to respond more freely to the developments of the past week. Chicago was a seller to a moderate extent, especially of Cotton Oil, and the news from that center was of a mixed character, some cutting of rates being reported, while St. Paul and other roads were said to be reducing expenses in many ways.

The coal stocks were the great feature of the day, and considerable pressure was brought upon Reading and Lackawanna. The last-named stock was quite weak in the forenoon, but later recovered handsomely, and is one of the few showing a material gain for the day this evening. Delaware and Hudson was unparally active and stores and morad are recovered. usually active and strong, and moved up rap-idly on a report that there would be an increase in the rate of dividend or an extra dividend at the next meeting. Outside of the three stocks mentioned, Reading, Lackawanna and St. Paul mentioned, iterating, lackawanna and St. Faur in the regular list and Cotton Oil in the unlisted department, there was very little interest in the transactions, and fluctuations were small and unimportant, except in Chicago Gas Trust, which recovered some of the loss of the past few days.

First prices were about steady, but the mar-First prices were about steady, but the market in the succeeding transactions became quite feverish, and except in the Coalers and the Trusts there was very little movement outside of Delaware and Hudson. The market closed quiet and firm at fractional advances for the day. The final changes are almost all in the direction of higher figures.

The transactions in the bond list showed a marked falling off to-day, being only $1.428,000, against $1.975,000 yesterday. To this amount the Reading fours contributed $232,000, and the Atlantic and Pacific fours $141,000, but there was no other special animation in the list.

MESSES, REA BROS. & Co. have issued a andbook of railway securities which is valu-ble to investors. It is of convenient size and stractive in style.

Mid-January Lull in Produce, Worse Than Bargained For. NO ABATEMENT OF BUTTER SUPPLY

Cereal Markets Give No Sign of Rally From Depression.

HAY KEEPS DRIFTING DOWNWARD

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, THURSDAY, January 17, 1889. Country Produce, Jobbing Prices. As it was in the beginning of the year, it is now-and it is fervently hoped shall not ever be-in produce lines markets are very dull. The quietness of trade, generally looked for through January, is thus far more than was bargained for. The mid-January lull has been intensified by the spring-like weather. Any announcement of cold waves from the Signal Service is hailed with delight by produce commission men. The accumulation of country butter gives no signs of abatement. Eggs, too, are still coming to the front in quantities too large for demands of trade. It will require a goodly number of Manitoba blizzards, well engthened out from now till spring, to save produce markets from the demoralization which has prevailed through the first half of winter.

Sales on call: One car No. 1 cereal situation still remains in the buyers' favor. There is general complaint among dealers that the bulk of stuff coming in is of inferior grade. This, with the over-supply, keeps markets in a depressed condition. The heavy receipts of hay for the past week or two makes trade in this line particularly slow.
